

Gary Enricco Scaff

January 14, 1976 - December 23, 2003

Gary E. Scaff Jr., son of the late Gary E. Scaff Sr. and Blanche Davies, was born on January 14, 1976 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on December 23, 2003. Gary received his education at Walbrook High School in Baltimore. He was known as Rick by his family and “Rick Rider” by those who knew his passion for riding dirt bikes and driving cars. At an early age, he was brought to True Foundation Baptist Church in Glen Burnie, Maryland by his grandmother, Mrs. Evelyn Davies. There he participated in many of the young people’s activities; attending church as much as possible. In the mid-eighties he was brought to the United Brethren for Christ Inc. Church by his Aunt Barbara Clark. One Sunday, Bishop Gaines made a call for those who wanted to give their life to the Lord. Rick was among those who came to the altar to get saved. What he did from that point only God knows. Rick was very popular and had many friends. He enjoyed music and was very much interested in “Rap.” He loved to laugh and joke with his family at gatherings. Whenever he left our presence, from the home or from the telephone-he always said, “Goodbye, I love you”. Rick will be missed by all that knew and loved him. He leaves to mourn: his loving mother, Blanche Davies; two sisters, Danielle Scaff and Latresa Scaff; one daughter, Sade Scaff; grandmother, Evelyn Davies; grandfather, William Carroll; five aunts, Celestine, Barbara Jean, Dalaine, Verna and Barbara; five uncles, Masaga, Leonard, Marchal, Rodney and Ronnie; two nieces, Amya and Ivyonna; two nephews, Michael and Amoni; a very special devoted friend, Jamilla Brooks;

and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Although you might find little solace in the why behind your sorrow. The one you love is gone from here, and this changes not tomorrow. If loss comes, too, with tragedy, its harder even still, to believe such pain was preference, much less anybody’s will. God Bless You##imported-begin##Brenda Royster##imported-end##

“ Knowing Rick one can honestly say what a good heart he had. What helps me to deal with this, is those words he would always say to me “Are you alright, do you need anything, no matter what it is or what time you just call me” To his mother, Jamilla, and family hold on to those good memories. Our prayers are with you all. Eric & Dee##imported-begin##Dee##imported-end##
