“ Uncle Gary lived with a spirit that couldn’t be dulled. Whether he was working on a project or riding his motorcycle with the wind at his back, he embraced life with joy and determination. He believed in taking care of his family, and he showed that love not just in words, but in the way he showed up—every day, without fail. His laughter could ease a heavy day. His presence made you feel safe and understood. He had a way of making you believe that everything was going to be alright. Though we are heartbroken to lose him, we are forever grateful to have been loved by him. His road does not end here—his spirit rides on, free and bright, in every memory we hold. Love you - Tessa Hanley-Cowlah
