

Gary L. Jackson

January 10, 1960 - December 1, 2018

Gary L. Jackson was born to the late Mr. Eston and Mrs. Hannah Jackson on January 10, 1960 at Lutheran Memorial Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. At the age of 10, Gary discovered he had a talent where he could use his mouth to make instrumental sounds. Teachers and students loved how he would make musical base sound from his mouth. A famous musician without drums, everyone who knew him knew he loved his music. Two of his favorite songs were Yolanda Adams "The Battle Is Not Yours" and Lenny Williams "Cause I Love you". Not only did he have an ear for music, Gary had a creative gift, where he would make greeting cards for any occasion.

Gary Jackson later in life met and married his sweetheart, Jocelyn Jackson. From this Union, they had two children, their son Jamal and their daughter Princess.

Gary had various jobs. He worked at Perdue Chicken on the Eastern Shore. He also worked as a roofer.

He attended two churches. The New Harvest Church & First Apostolic Faith Church with his family. He just wanted to love and be loved. We thank God that he knew just how much he was loved by his wife, his siblings and his children.

Preceding him in death, his lovely wife Jocelyn Jackson, sister Myra Jackson, and his two brothers Gerald Jackson and Morris Green.

Gary L. Jackson leaves to mourn his children Jamal and Princess. Two grandsons, 14 years Jahleel and 6 year old Carter, two granddaughters, 9 year old Kinnedi and 5 year old Jaliyah. Siblings, Linda, Trina, Lori, Levi Jr, Rodney and one brother in law Odis Mann. Eldest cousins, Myrtie and Rhoda, and a host of other cousins, family and friends.
