

Gary (Nano) Harris

November 28, 1965 - June 11, 2024

Our warrior Gary has laid down his sword and has gained his heavenly crown, while his sister Peaches and Uncle Israel welcomes him home.

Gary was the beloved son of Joyce Artis and Bernard Harris. When he was a child, he was given the name Nano by one of his uncles and was known by this name.

He graduated from Ron Thomas Cosmetology School and became a licensed professional barber. In the year 2000, he opened the Hands of Power Barbershop on Reisterstown Road. In 2016 he started a vending machine business call HOP Vending. Both businesses helped him grow close relationships with his clients. He made them laugh, cry, angry, at times, but most of all they formed a beautiful bond.

Gary was known for being the picture and video man at most events. He loved to record family moments and cherished them close to his heart. He would go above and beyond to support his family and friends with unfiltered real words, phone calls or helping to find the best price deals. He was a great debater on any subject and challenged anybody to a board game. He was the life of the party and would let his presence be known when he arrived to an event. When it came to his family or friends he held no filter. He was quick to tell a story and even quicker to say well "My pockets cannot do what yours are doing, I gotta hustle for mine." Gary sold just about anything from clothing, body oils, snowballs to loose cigarettes. If there was a dollar to be made he was going to make it.

He leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife, Tiffany, his parents; Joyce Artis and Bernard Harris, his children; Tiffany, Jasmine, Antoine, Zoe and Shiloh, his grand-kids; Cam, Jade, Bryonah, Nehemiah, Jo'Sih, his great grandson Daylen, his nephews Travis and Yusef whom he loved as his sons, 3 close cousins, Bernard "Manny", Raynard and Karim whom he loved both as brothers: his close lifelong friend Larry and a host of loving family and friends.
