

Gary Edward Newman Jr.

August 20, 1962 - January 9, 2022

GARY EDWARD NEWMAN, JR., son of Gary Edward Newman, Sr. and Sylvia Newman, was born on August 20, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. He suddenly departed this life on January 9, 2022.

Gary received his education at Forest Park High School. Gary was self-sufficient and enjoyed being self-employed as a skilled craftsman who did home improvement/maintenance. He was known for helping anyone who needed his services. He had a passion for driving and would transport his parents and friends wherever they needed to go. Gary realized early that one cannot become a doer if you do not first dream and he was dreamer who had an endless imagination that suited him. Gary accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age. He referenced the Bible and engaged in discussing the Bible with his family. He was often seen leaving the house with his Bible and would return home to retrieve his Bible if he forgot it. His favorite scripture was Luke 6:31, "Do to others as you would have them do to you" – NIV.

Gary was musically talented and enjoyed playing the bass guitar in the "Sterling Silver Band". He enjoyed listening to music from the 70s which is known for one of the best decades for music. He relished in watching classic black and white movies. Gary was an avid Sports fan and could be seen cheering for the Ravens and the late Kobe Bryant. Gary enjoyed debating about politics and would engage his family members in these lively debates. He loved his mother's cooking, especially his mother's potato salad.

Gary was a loving, kind-hearted private person who lived a quiet life with his family. He regarded his home as his peaceful sanctuary and enjoyed its quiet existence amongst his family. Gary preferred to stay under the radar and avoided the limelight. He chose to do things at his own pace. Gary was respectful, helpful and very generous with his time. He didn't seek attention and approval from others. His gentle spirit left an indelible mark on those who got to know him. His image engraved on our hearts forever.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his father, Gary Edward Newman, Sr.; mother, Sylvia Newman; two siblings, Terry Newman (Susan) and Kim Bradley (Jerome); nieces, Jennifer Bradley and Ariel Newman; nephews, Anthony Bradley, Lee Newman and Jonathan Newman; aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.
