“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear Vincent. Remember, though, that death is only temporary. God has something better in store for those who love him. He promises that soon he will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. He has given his Son Jesus, all authority to resurrect the dead. John 5:25 says: Most truly I say to you, the hour is coming when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who have given heed will live. Your loved one will live again you will have the blessed promise of seeing him again. May your cherished memories of Vincent be a great source of comfort to you until God's promise of the resurrection is fulfilled.

To Aunt Lorraine & Family, It saddens our heart during this time of lost. Know that to be absent from the body, means to be present with the lord. May God comfort you during this time. We do pray & mourn with you during this time... Love, Faye, June, Dwight, Paulette & Brend Mae & The Family of Suffolk, Virginia

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
