

Gary I. Williams

November 8, 1945 - November 18, 2013

Gary I. Williams, son of the late Dorothy M. and Joseph Williams, was born on November 8, 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on November 18, 2013 after a brief illness.

He received Christ as his Lord and Savior in his early years.

Gary received his education through the Baltimore City School System. He was an employee of the Baltimore Mayflower Moving and Storage Company and over the years he held several handyman jobs.

In 1969 Gary met the woman who became the love of his life, Ms. Rosetta Weeks. Gary and Rose shared an unbreakable bond for forty-four years until the day he was called home to glory.

Gary made friends wherever he went. He was loved by everyone and welcomed in anyone's home. He was always willing to help. Family and friends alike have been blessed by his services, caring for the sick and running errands when need be. The kids gravitated to him knowing that if they hung out with him they would have fun and come home with money in their pockets and a stomach full of junk food and/or candy.

Gary had four siblings that preceded him in death, Marvin Williams, Arlene

Watkins, Karl Watkins and Lamont Watkins.

He leaves to mourn: his beloved, Rosetta; four sisters, Karen Bradford, Marcia Gethers,

Michele Edwards and Thelma Schuler; brother, William Hill; three brothers-in-law, Rickey Gethers, William Bradford and Milton Edwards; six nephews, Maurice, Marvin, Anthony, Karl, Devin and Jordan; nine nieces, Latetia, Shanika, Wendy, Niesha, Tierra, Ashley, LaKiesha, Allyshia (Bree) and Rose; and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Our family would like to express our condolences to your family May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing." Our prayers are with your dear family.

“ To the family of Gary I. Williams:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ Please accept my sincerest condolences on the death of your dear love one. God, our Heavenly Father never purposed death for mankind. He hates death and calls it an enemy. Very soon He will stop it once and for all. (1 Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 28:5) Mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect health (Psalms 37:9-11, Revelation 21: 3, 4 and Isaiah 33:24) May you draw comfort in the Creator's wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again. Hope that knowing this will take away some of your deep sorrow.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
