

Gaston Jones

June 29, 1929 - September 17, 2012

GASTON JONES, son of the late Needham William Jones and the late Mable Nunn Bass, was born on June 29, 1929 in Durham, North Carolina. He departed this life on September 17, 2012 at 3:33p.m.

In 1942, he moved to Maryland and lived on Norris Farm. He received his education at the Cottage Grove School (a house with two rooms and a hallway). He continued his education at Braggs High school in Sparrows Point. Gaston and his wife, Ruthie also supported family; taking care of his nieces and nephews. Gaston became employed at the Mars Super Marker then he worked at Sparrows Point.

Gaston, better known as, "POPS," was loved by his entire community and he loved helping. He would sit on his porch with a smile and speak words of encouragement to his friends and neighbors. He loved working garden, growing collard greens, cabbages,, tomatoes, etc. He had the most beautiful 4:00 flowers that bloomed and glowed. He loved fishing and hunting until his health began to fail. He was very artistic in repairing appliances, televisions, bicycles, etc.

Gaston was a dedicated husband to his wife "Ruthie." Through his illness traveling three times a week receiving dialysis treatments, he never stop visiting his wife.

Gaston is survived by:his wife, Ruth Jones; adopted son, Eddie Hopkins; brother, Needham; sisters, Mary R. Wilson, Jeanette M. Lewis, Mary F. Jones and Lorraine Stills; sister-in-law, Ella Jones; two brothers-in-law, Calvin Wilson, Sr. and Gordon Stills; a host of nieces, nephews, a devoted neighbor, Vincent; other relatives and friends.
