

Gayle Guess Moore

August 6, 1955 - February 21, 2003

Gayle Lynn Guess was born on August 6, 1955 in Washington, DC. She was the youngest daughter of Lonnie and Ruth Guess. Her siblings include Hal Edward Guess married to Barbara Duckett; Dolly Ann Guess married to William Hall; and Larry Allen Guess married to Rosa Smith. Nieces and nephews are Karen and Lorrie Guess, Candralyn and Renee Guess, Alex and Mark Colvin-Hall, and Kevin Hall. After graduating high school in Asheville, North Carolina Gayle made her home in Baltimore, Maryland. She graduated from Helene Fuld Nursing School of Provident Hospital in 1976 and received her Bachelor of Science Nursing Degree from Coppin State College in 1986 and her Masters Degree in 1999. Gayle lived a full and active life while stoically enduring diagnoses of Diabetes and End Stage Renal Failure. Her inner strength touched many lives and she was an inspiration to all that knew her. She asked that the following poem, by Stephen Cummins, be included in her final ceremony. Do not stand at my grave and weep I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain I am the gentle autumn rain, When you awaken in the morning's hush; I am the swift uplifting rush. Of quiet birds in circles of flight, I am the soft star that shines at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there. I did not die.
