

Gene A. Little

September 18, 2012 - November 6, 2012

GENE AUTRY LITTLE, son of the late Mary and John Taylor, was born on September 19, 1939 in North Carolina. He departed this life on November 6, 2012 suddenly.

He received his education at Douglass Senior High School in Baltimore, Maryland. After finishing high school he worked at a couple of department stores; after which he decided to join the United States Army and travel around the world. Hearing him talk about his experience from those years spent in the service would keep you wanting him to tell you more.

After serving three years in the Army, from 1962 to 1965, he returned home to work a few other jobs. He married, and out of this union came one daughter whose name was Katrina, whom he cherished more than life itself. God took her away to be with Him in heaven many years ago. It broke his heart that never mended. As his friend of many years, I saw his pain and felt it. He and his wife divorced.

He worked for C&P Telephone Company as a Telephone Technician for twenty-five years, and the company gave him five years when he retired to make it thirty years. He lived to be seventy-three years old, and he always said he was grateful for that. He made numerous friends wherever he went, and he will be sincerely missed. Rejoice, Gene, in Heaven with the Heavenly Father and your family. I hope one day to see you again.

He leaves to mourn: his cousins, Nancy and Suria Howell; Pastor and his wife; very good friends, Mrs. Eula Clay, Kay Hamlin, Mrs. Vivian Watkins, Deacon Jennings; a host of other relatives and friends.
