

Gene "BayRay" Taylor

April 16, 1943 - July 8, 2023

Gene Raymond "BayRay" Taylor was born April 16, 1943 in Richmond, Virginia and departed this life July 8, 2023.

He was born to the late Clarence Taylor, Sr. and Elsie Taylor Davis and attended Armstrong High School. He worked as bus driver for GRTC and a truck driver for Maislin Trucking and Roadway Trucking Company.

Gene loved playing chess, playing jazz music and old-school gospel music. He was the family car mechanic and gardener. He also enjoyed cooking special dishes and watching his favorite football team the Raiders. Gene was always willing to give the Word of God to friends and family. His favorite scripture was the 23rd Psalm.

In his youth he received Christ as his Lord and Savior and when he became older he rededicated his life to the Lord Jesus. He was a member of First African Baptist Church, Resurrection Lutheran Church and the Richmond Christian Center.

Gene leaves to cherish his memory his daughter Jean Taylor Pittman (Marvin), granddaughter Alana Pittman, stepson James Vowels (Rachel), sisters-in-law Barbara Ann Johnson and Constance Jackson, brother-in-law Robert Jackson, and a host of nieces, nephews, great nephews, and great nieces.

Preceding him in death were his wife of 45 years Rosetta Jackson Taylor and three siblings, Clarence Taylor, Jr., Frederick Taylor, and Joyce Thornton.
