

Geneva Angela Alleyne

September 24, 1956 - April 5, 2008

On Saturday, April 5, 2008, God called home our beloved Geneva Angela Alleyne. Jenny, as she was affectionately called, was born to Andrew and Jane Alleyne on September 24, 1956. Jenny was one of four children. She is preceded in death by her parents, Jane and Andrew Alleyne and niece, Coleen Cort. Born in Linden, Guyana, her early education at McKenzie Primary and Chatham High School prepared her for migration to Brooklyn, N.Y. in 1981, where she was employed by Odyssey America Reinsurance Corp. At a very early age, she dedicated her life to Christ; worshipping at Calvary Temple in Linden. Jenny's quiet, warm spirit endeared her to the hearts of all who knew her. She thoroughly enjoyed the telephone bonding moments shared with her great nieces Leah and Keyanna. Many loved ones will cherish and have fond memories: two brothers, Gordon and Lennox Alleyne; loving sister, Monica Cort; devoted brother-in-law, O'Neil Cort; two sisters-in-law, Evelyn and Cora Alleyne; uncle, Adolphus Benjamin; aunt-in-law of Owen Williams; cousins, Emelda Neblett, Beatrice Haynes, Olga Klass and several others; god-children, Mayia Hinds, Joseph Coy and Shelly Benjamin; nephews, Rawle, Randall, Rodwell, Cedrick and Jermaine; nieces, Maxine, Karen, and Leah; several great-nephews and nieces; a host of other relatives, friends of the Stevens, the Kellman's and the Hensford's; special friends, Barbara Butler, Gillian Coy and Patsy Stevens.

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 which assures us of the hope that those who have fallen asleep in death will receive a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. May the God of all comfort Jehovah, and his son Jesus, be with you at this time. 2nd Cor 1:3,4. Please keep in mind that one day all those who are sleeping in death in Jehovah's memory will be ressurected. They will hear the voice of God's son, Christ Jesus, and they will come back to life eternal. May you find much comfort and strength from God's promises of an end to sickness and death forever, and a wonderful awakening for the dead. Acts 24:15, Rev 21:3-5, and Daniel 12,2##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##
