

Geneva David

January 11, 1912 - July 30, 2003

Geneva Smith David was the third child of the late Kate Carter Smith and Ellicet Smith. She was born on January 11, 1913 in Manning, South Carolina. On July 30, 2003 the Lord came and said "Take My hand, we will go to a higher and better place." Geneva Smith David received her education in Manning, South Carolina. After finishing her education she taught the sixth grade for 3 years. During that time she met and married Vander Lee David. They had a son, the late Frederick David and later moved to Baltimore, Maryland. The family grew to have eight children. Geneva worked many jobs to support the family and still she had time for her children. She also worked at Stella Maris in the late sixties and retired in the late seventies. Geneva would help anyone who needed a helping hand, she was just that kind of person and she loved to sing. Geneva leaves to mourn: one son, Joseph David; one daughter, Elsie Hawkes; one sister, Landletter Blackshear; one daughter-in-law, Jean David; three sons-in-law, Wayland Hawkes, Antonio M. Brewer and Jerry Fancois; ten grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends. As the song goes... "Mama, You know we love you, Sweet Mama, just like the angel up above, You can teach them how to love Don't you know we love you Sweet Mama." You will be missed.
