

Geneva Grant

August 9, 1916 - December 8, 2010

GENEVA S. GRANT, daughter of the Earnest and Hattie Smith, was born on August 8, 1916 in Monroe, North Carolina. She departed this life on December 8, 2010 after a short illness. She received her education in Monroe N.C. and later came to Maryland where she decided to start a family. She loved and married Logan Grant of Reisterstown, Maryland and out of that union she had two children, the late Tina Johnson and the late Nathaniel Grant 1st.

She then began many careers. Geneva began and professional model; she modeled for quite some time. She then became a nurse and worked with children for a while. She began working for Dr. Levi and his wife, taking care of their two children, Allen and Jan. She adored Jan, which she nick-named her Missy, she often spoke of Missy with much admiration. After that, she began selling her antiques. For about 10 years, she sold antiques at the shop on Park Heights Avenue in Baltimore, and then she set up a stall at the flea market where she sold antiques up until the day she died, for about 30 years. Geneva enjoyed being out at the flea market with all her many friends. She loved being with her family, having parties and having fun. Indeed, she loved her life at 94 years old.

Geneva leaves to mourn a dear and devoted friend, Douglas Wright of Lansdowne, Maryland. Her devoted daughter-in-law, Elaine Grant of Randallstown Maryland, 6 grandsons: Padwa Johnson, Salvador Johnson, Jehur Johnson, Cedric Johnson, Nathaniel Grant 2nd , and Lawrence Ellis; 2 granddaughters: Constance Ellis, and Delanda Grant; a granddaughter who preceded her in death, Tomocka Johnson; a great-granddaughter preceded her in death, Alicia Johnson; 7 nieces: Pamela Smith, Connie Smith, Rosalyn Smith, Mother Gertude Gamble, Katherine Young, Betty Simmons, and Martha Queen; 2 nephews: Johnnie Smith and Eugene Smith and a host of other relatives and friends.
