

Geneva Jean Butler

September 18, 1919 - September 27, 2008

Geneva J. Butler, daughter of the late Steve Layton and Hattie Kelly, was born on September 18, 1919 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 27, 2008 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Douglass High School in Baltimore. At the age of eighteen, she became employed by Sinai Hospital as a Certified Nursing Assistant. She was a parent volunteer in Baltimore City Public Schools since 1977. She was a dedicated Baptized Servant of Jehovah for 34 years at 211 North Highland Avenue. She was baptized on June 15, 1974. She married the former Robbie Butler and out of their union they raised her son Charles Fox. Geneva was a very friendly and outgoing person. She made many friends, for she knew no strangers. She was always a true friend and devoted grandmother and her family always came first. She leaves to mourn: her husband Robbie Butler, three sisters-in-law; four brothers-in-law; two brothers Steven and John Layton; one grand daughter Diana White; one grand son-in-law Charles White; three great grand children Josset G. Fox, Jeannette Emerson, Bernetta A. Baker; seven great great grand children Megan Emerson, Deaira Thompson, Storm Emerson, Javonna Handy, Kristopher Jones, Makayla and Mariya

Tribute Wall

“ Geneva Jean Butler

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Dear Family, My sincere condolences goes out to you. May you find comfort in Almighty God promise at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3-5. Please take the time to read those promises and find a measure of comfort during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##V. Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear family of sister Butler, I offer my deepest and most heartfelt sympathy for her loss. Although she has fallen asleep in death, know that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will comfort you in all of your tribulations. Lovingly, Jehovah holds out the wonderful hope of the resurrection to sister Butler, and all those who rest their hope on him and his son Jesus. May all of God's people continue to have plenty to do in the work of the Lord until that glorious day arrive; sister Butler would have wanted it that way. I didn't have the pleasure of meeting her, but I look forward to meeting her in Jehovah's new paradise that he has promised to those who love him. 2nd Peter 3:13. Family may you find much comfort in Jehovah's promises, and may your precious memories of Geneva help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello ! Butler's ! I am sending my love and condolences to my family. Sister Geneva has the great hope there is of the resurrection in the near future. We know the dead are sleeping as Jesus said at John11:22-44. Our heavenly father Jehovah is the greatest. May all the many precious and cherish memories shared with Sister Geneva stay close until the promise of all things being made NEW, Rev.21:3-5 come.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM