

Geneva Jones

November 28, 1922 - January 21, 2004

GENEVA [JEAN] FEDD-JONES was born on November 28, 1922 in Greenwood, South Carolina to the late Willie and Novella Fedd. She was the first of seven children born to that union. At the age of four years old, Jean and her family moved to Baltimore Maryland. Jean attended the public schools of Baltimore City. She worked at Johns Hopkins University and various other places in the food service department. She started working at the age of seventeen years old, and worked for a total of forty-four years. She later met and married the late Raymond Jones. Their union did not produce any children, but she considered her many nieces and nephews as her children. Jean often enjoyed going to church, reading her Bible, talking to family and friends, making people as a result of her good sense of humor, shopping, and growing her plants. On January 21, 2004 Jean was called home to be with the Lord. Jean leaves to cherish her memory: two sisters, Julia Sonkes and Marguarite Hill; one brother, Willie Fedd, Jr.; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
