

Geneva G. McCoy

February 2, 1932 - October 22, 2013

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying. Neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away. — Revelation 21:4

GENEVA McCOY was born on February 2, 1932 in Bladenboro, North Carolina. She was the eighth child born to the late William and Lula Maultsby. She suddenly departed this life on October 22, 2013

Geneva accepted Christ at an early age and was a devoted member of Bryant Swamp Baptist Church. Gen, as she was affectionately called by family and friends, was educated in the public school system in Bladenboro, where she graduated from Spaulding Monroe High School.

Geneva moved to Baltimore, where she was employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital. She later opened her own shop and worked for many years as a barber.

Gen married Walter McCoy in 1961. Both were faithful members of the Calvary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Dr. Lorenzo Graves. She served on several ministries in the church, but had a special love for the Kitchen Ministry.

Geneva and Walter moved to Morven, North Carolina. There he pastored two congregations. After his death, Geneva moved back to Baltimore to be close to her family.

Geneva loved gardening, cooking and sewing. She was loving and caring. Yet, she was very outspoken and meant what she said. She enjoyed all types of music.

She leaves to cherish her memory: sister, Virginia Monroe; goddaughter, Marnie Sharpe; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends including trusted friend, George Foster.

“ To the family of Geneva G. McCoy:
*Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ To the family of Geneva McCoy .. Please accept my deepest condolences on the death of your dear loved one. One of the assurances that we have when a loved dies is found at 2Corinthians 3, 4 - "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we maybe able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God." There is also a real hope of being reunited with our dead loved ones (John 5:28k 29)

To the McCoy. So sorry about your loss. The bible does give you this hope. John 5:28-29 says " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgement". Until that times comes cherish all the fond memories of your loved one. May God give you all the peace and endurance needed at this very difficult time.
