

Geneva Mitchell

April 17, 1920 - March 21, 2017

On Tuesday, March 21, 2017, the Lord sent His angels to bring Sister Geneva Smith Mitchell home to be with her beloved husband, Joseph, in their heavenly home He promised them (John 14:2-4).

Geneva was born April 17, 1920, to the late Alberta McCain Smith and Thomas Jefferson Smith in Roxboro, North Carolina. Geneva was the ninth of ten children born to this union, all of whom preceded her in death. She was educated in and graduated from the Person County School System.

She professed faith in Christ early in life and joined Old Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Roxboro, where she was one of the first persons to be elected to the Board of Ushers. She served faithfully until she relocated to Baltimore, Maryland. It was there that she met and married the love of her life, Harry Joseph Mitchell in 1956. They continued to live in wedded bliss until his death in 1975. They are now reunited in heaven.

Geneva was employed in the laundry and dry cleaning industry for numerous years. She was loved by all to whom she endeared herself. She had an incredible sense of humor and a positive outlook on life. She loved to make people smile and laugh. She was famous for sending humorous greeting cards and for her sharp wit. Geneva was fiercely independent and took pride in her self-determination. She proudly lived alone until her health began to decline last August.

Geneva is survived by six nieces, Shelby Wilkerson and Betty Wilkerson of Charlotte, NC; Alice Thorpe, Margaret Boyd, and Rev. Jackie Smith of Roxboro, NC; and Foye Pierce of Newark, NJ; five nephews, Thomas E. Williams of Washington, DC; Terry Williams of Weldon, NC; Larry Williams of Alton, VA; Leondis Outlaw of Roxboro, NC; and Hugh Smith of Graham, NC; and a host of additional relatives and friends, including a loving and devoted great niece, Dr. Michele Shannon, who has provided compassionate personal care and support for Geneva throughout her senior years.

Geneva lived a life filled with love and laughter. She touched many lives. Her light will continue to shine down on us.
