

Geneva D. Moody

April 12, 1925 - July 22, 2010

GENEVA PEARL LUCUS MOODY was born on April 12, 1925 in Nash County, North Carolina. She died after a long illness on July 22, 2010.

Geneva was born to the late Annie Garrett and the late Andrew Lucas of Nash County, North Carolina. She grew up with three brothers and three sisters, the late Bessie Powell and the viola Evans of North Carolina and the late Minnie Myers of Georgia, three brothers the late Andrew, Joseph and Robert Lucas all of North Carolina.

She attended Nash County Schools in North Carolina and later moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she met Joseph Flintalle and out of this union was born her only child, Marguerite A. Dugger of Baltimore, Maryland.

She worked at Bugle Laundry while in Baltimore, Maryland for twenty-five years where she stayed until she retired. She was a loving grandma, aunt, mother, godmother, sister and friends and touched the lives with love with whomever she met. She will be greatly missed.

She leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Marguerite A. Dugger of Baltimore, Maryland; son-in-law, John H. Dugger of Baltimore, Maryland; three grandchildren, Yolanda, Jennifer and Jonathan Duger all of Baltimore, Maryland; seven great-grandchildren; a very special godson, Carol L. Dorsey; and a host of nieces and nephews.
