

Geneva Royster

October 11, 1930 - January 27, 2011

GENEVA ROYSTER, resided in her home in Evanston, Illinois until God, in His infinite wisdom and love, took her home on Thursday, January 27, 2011.

Born on October 11, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland, Geneva “Jenny” was the third of four children born to the late Oak (Oakie) McNeil Thomas and Edna Marie Thomas, Her Sister, Sadie Sivels and two brothers, Earl W. Thomas and Oakie Thomas preceded her in death. She was the loving and dedicated wife of William L. Royster, who also preceded her in death.

Jenny was employed at Washington National Insurance Company until she, and William retired in 1990. After retirement, they were able to travel and simply enjoy being together after many years of hard work. They shared a great love of animals and often told humorous stories about their pets.

Jenny is survived by: a step-daughter, Aneva V. Royster; a stepson, Bruce D. Royster, both of Baltimore, Maryland; six step-grandchildren, Darryll, Byron, Faith, Reva, Bruce Jr. and Nicole, all of Baltimore, Maryland; a brother-in-law, Don M. Royster, Sr. and his wife, Vertie Royster of Town and Country, Missouri; and sister-in-law, Shirley Price of Odenton, Maryland, Geraldine Creasy of Odenton, Maryland and Joan Ann Stewart of Baltimore, Maryland; nieces, including goddaughter, Denise Gambrell; nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Jenny is also mourned by a host of friends in Evanston, Illinois. Our special appreciation to Al Davis and Larry Favors of Evanston for the help they extended to Jenny over the years, and for being good friends and neighbors.
