

Genevieve Wilson

September 8, 1929 - January 6, 2013

GENEVIEVE WILSON departed life on Sunday, January 6, 201 at the Future Care – Homewood Nursing Home in Baltimore, Maryland.

Born on September 8, 1929 in Madison Heights, Virginia to the late Jordan Mays, Jr. and Eddie Virginia, she was educated in the public schools in Amherst County. At an early age, she was baptized at Scott Zion Baptist Church.

After graduation from high school, she relocated to Baltimore, Maryland where she later met and married Wardell Woodrow Wilson, who preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her mother, father, brother, two sisters and a son-in-law.

She was a devoted Christian who taught her children Godly values and practices. Prior to her illness, she attended and became a member of Union Baptist Church in Baltimore.

She was a spirited person and often let others know just what she was thinking and feeling. She seemed to respond to every situation by reciting the words to poetry or popular songs. One of her favorite sayings was “Ain’t nothing shaking but bacon, and that’s been taken.” Her favorite pastimes were listening to music, singing, and enjoying family and friends.

She was a very jovial person and she and her girlfriends would dress up on any given Friday and find a spot that had good food and good music playing on the jukebox. Her friends nick-named her “Janice”, because hardly anyone could spell G E N E V I E V E. Her good nature and zest for life also earned her the nickname “Jazzy Jenny.”

Genevieve leaves to mourn: seven children, Veronica McRae (John), Gloria Wayman (Clarence), Wardell Jr., Irwin Sr. (Toni), Sheila Dunning, Reginald Sr. (Sylvia) and Randy (Roberta); two sisters, Magnolia Braxton and Ruth Mays; one sister-in-law, Helen Wilson; lifetime friend, Dolly Robinson; fifteen grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, several extended family members and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
