“ Well, the jokes and laughter have ended for only a second. I'm sad but every day was a fun time and full of something to make you laugh. I thank God for Daddy and allowing me to have him in my life for as long as I did and ask God to assign him and Pop the role of Guardian Angels for us. I am so happy he is gone on to his new life because I truly believe that God has a better life for us AND I know he missed Pop so much. Now they are together again keeping the heavens laughing.##imported-begin##Gina##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the Boston family on the loss of George. It's so unfair that any family has to lose a loved one in death. God never purposed this for mankind, because he desires that all of his children, whether heavenly or earthly live forever in peaceful and secure conditions. That is why he had the Lord's prayer recorded. Where it sayss, "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth, just as it is heaven, helps us to appreciate that Jehovah God desires the same conditions here on the earth that are in heaven. One day that prayer will be answered, because God will end all sickness, all tragedies, and all death. Isaiah 33:24 says that one day "No reident will say, "I am sick." Also Isaiah 25:8 says that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." How will these blessings come about? I would like to share with you God"s purpose from the bible, so please contact me on my e-mail if you would be interested in a bible discussion. May Jehovah God and his son Jesus, continue to comfort you at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the Boston Family, My deepest condolences and prayers are extended to your entire family. May the love and blessings of God continue to embrace the family as you go through this time of bereavement. "I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;" John 14:16###imported-begin##Kim Young##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to George's family at this time. I worked with him at the Crime Prevention Institute in Woodstock and remember him as a genuinely nice man, great to work with and always making everyone in the office laugh. He had a great sense of humor and everyone really liked him. May he rest in peace.###imported-begin##Joyce Gary##imported-end##

“ To the Family and Friends. I am so sorry to hear about the death of George. The Bible gives the loving hope of our loved ones returning to life. Acts 24:15 informs us "There is going to be a resurrection." When that time occurs the earth will be a trouble-free paradise with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Isaiah 65:17 and 2 Peter 3:13). May you be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##M. Rasaki##imported-end##

“ To the Boston Family and Friends, Our deepest condolences to you all for your loss. Remember, nothing can replace George in your hearts and memories; keep him there, close enough to draw on in times of need, and for the occasional smile. We'll be at the Wake on Monday.##imported-begin##Carol and Garven Hudgins##imported-end##

“ To My Beautiful Family, I have sincere regret that I was not able to attend my Uncle's services, but you are all in my prayers. This will be a difficult time for us all but through God's loving embrace we will heal. There is no safer place to be than in heaven with our Father. God bless you all Ayesha##imported-begin##AYESHA##imported-end##

“ To the Boston Family: Please know my prayers are with you. Now is a time to reflect back on all the wonderful memories you shared. It can ease the burden somewhat and provide strength through this difficult time. I remember George as we braved the hurricane in St. Marteen and I smile when I think about sharing in that experience with your family. May God bless the Boston family real good.##imported-begin##Anita Green##imported-end##
