

George S. Atkins

February 25, 1942 - March 27, 2017

Then will I go to alter of God, to god, my joy and my delight ---Psalm 43.4

George Atkins was granted his wings on Monday, March 27, 2017 at Ginter Hall facility in Richmond, Virginia.

George was a loving uncle, brother and friend who was called to a better place. His life would seem too short to those who were touched by him. The quality of existence exceeds the quantity of times which one lives.

George was born on February 25, 1942 to the late Charlie and Sallie Atkins. He graduated from Wyatt High School in Emporia, Virginia. After high school, he relocated to Richmond, Virginia. He worked and retired after 30 years at the William Byrd Printing Press Company. He was an active member of Pentecostal Church until his health failed him. He also was a member and affiliated with other churches. He was an energetic, passionate person who enjoyed ministering, traveling, cooking and gardening.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by seven siblings. He is survived by one remaining sister, Carolyn Barner of Emporia, Virginia. He leaves to cherish his memories to a devoted niece, Delilah and a great-niece, Jakisha of Richmond, Virginia, four great-nephews, Lorenzo of Richmond, Virginia, James (Jessica) and Daryl of Lawrenceville, Georgia, Ronnie (Denise) and Jeffery of Emporia, Virginia; a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, relatives and friends.
