“ Hello ! Lancaster's ! I would like to extend fellow feeling to you all. It is wonderful to hear of some one living to be 99 years old give or take some months, Ps.90:10. In the near future dying will be a thing of the PAST. I am looking forward to that happening, Free. Our creator cares for you all as 1 Peter 5:7 say. The old become young again something to think about, no moe sickness and pain and sorrow, tears, Rev21:3-5. May all the many many accomplishments and happy shared times with Mr. George be helpful to endure on the journey of life.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences for the loss of George. One day God promises that all sickness and death will be no more. Rev 21:4 says of God: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. Then he promises, "Look! I am making all things new. A new world is coming in which peace will reign, and all the problems we face now; including death will be a thing of the past. 2nd Peter 3:13, Isaiah 65:17. May you be comforted by this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I extend my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 lovingly reveals that our "enemy death" will be destroyed. Acts 24:15 declares hope for our dead loved ones by stating "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
