

George Calvin Bevans

August 31, 1925 - February 14, 2015

GEORGE CALVIN BEVANS, the fifth child of George and Minerva Bevans, was born on August 31, 1925. He quietly slipped away on February 14, 2015 after an ongoing illness.

He attended Baltimore City Public Schools and later enlisted in the United States Armed Forces. George completed his overseas tour of duty in Italy. He had many funny stories to tell the family once he returned to the United States. He received an honorable discharge.

After returning home he was immediately employed by the Social Security Administration where he was a laborer for well over thirty-five years. He received commendations for his diligent work. He was the recipient of the Association Commissioner's Citation for outstanding accuracy and productivity as a warehouseman in the Division of Property Management.

He had a great love for music and was always willing to sing for the glory of God. His favorite selections were "How Great Thou Art" and "His Eye Is On The Sparrow".

He leaves to mourn: his sister, Mrs. Ruby M. Lee; daughter, Louise Bragg; and grandchildren; niece, Carla A. Johnson; nephews, Stanford E. Burke and Alan V. Poulson and family; great-nephews, Kenith D. Walker and Theodore I. Turner; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4
