“Got A Journey To Make”

I'm putting on my walking shoes;

got a journey to make

Sorry I can't say goodbye;

They told me of this special place

that's Just on the other side.

Where I can leave behind all sorry and pain and just enjoy the ride.

So please take comfort in knowing that I'm not far away.

I've just taken a little journey to enjoy a brand new day.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time. Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.

“ To the family of Brother George Harold Bey (Day), George smile and strength forever will in our thoughts.

Death is no enemy of man; it is a friend who, when the work of life is done, just cuts the cord that binds the human boat to earth, that it may sail on smoother seas. The calls of death are always for the best, for we are solving problems there as well as here; and one is sure to find himself where he can solve his problems best. Then let George rest in peace. just let his noble life be strength and inspiration unto you.

Peace and Love,

From Brother Eric Mungin Bey and members of The Moorish Holy Temple Of Science

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may family and friends be comforted by the wonderful promise at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ Vernice, Deborah & Family, with shock and disbelief, we were extremely saddened to hear of the lost of George Jr. It seems like only yesterday that he stopped by the house on a beautiful summer day; we sat out under the tree, enjoyed the wonderful breeze... reminisced... followed by a lot of laughter.

We realize that there are no words or actions that can be said and nothing that can be done to take away this pain; but, please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers not only now but in the hours and days to come.

Love,

Rose, Rachelle & RJ Jones

“ Condolences to the family and may Jehovah bless you during this difficult time. I am adding a scripture that will bring comfort to you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

You have my deeest symphathy.
