

George Boynes

April 1, 1950 - January 8, 2010

GEORGE BOYNES entered into this world on April 1, 1950 to Gladys Boynes in Harlem, New York. He departed this life on Friday, January 8, 2010 at 10:10 p.m. With his loving daughters by his beside. George received his education in the New York Public School System. He joined the Marine Corps where he served a combat tour in Vietnam 1967-1970. He received several medals and badges while serving. Upon leaving the Marine Corps he found his soul mate and started a family with his wife Perrice Vernice Boynes who preceded him in death. Of that union they had two beautiful daughters Tahesha and Keshia. He worked many years as a cook at Bertha's Mussels in Fells Point. He was known to family and friends as "Bo" with a crazy sense of humor and a love for movies. He pursued his passion and attended a culinary institute to become a chef. He worked as a chef for thirteen faithful years at the Maryland Veterans' Center for Education and Training also known as MCVET. It was there that he found peace and gave his life to the Lord Jesus Christ. While at MCVET he also joined the choir as a bass singer. Through his cherished choir, named the Message of Hope Choir, he met a host of new friends who were dear to him. He devoted time and traveled to different churches, spending the gospel through song, Veteran Services and other organizations with the choir. The invitation to the White House in 1999 to sing with choir was most memorable to George. He had a love for MCVET's agency and the choir. George was loved by everybody. He was a team leader, hard worker, loyal and dependable. He gave courage and wisdom where it was needed and strength in time of trouble. George leaves to cherish his memory: his two loving daughters, Tahesha Boynes of Baltimore and keshia Boynes of Harlem, N.Y.; a brother, Robert Phillips of Oklahoma; three sisters, Marcella Fields of Pennsylvania, Rosalie Brooks of Baltimore and Mary Brown of California; four grandchildren, Jarrod Boynes, Da'Mon Cottman, Tahlia Cottman and Isabelle Velez; longtime friend, Gwendolyn Beard; ex-wife, Janice Smith; a host of nieces, nephews, loving family and friends. He was preceded by his loving brothers Augustus Phillips and Emmanuel Boyd.

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation". “ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Boynes' family and friends. The loss of a loved one can result in deep sorrow; that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope by stating:"many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
