“ I am so sadden to hear of the passing of George. We were childhood friends and enjoyed our schools days together at Benjamin Graves jr. High, Maggie Walker High school, and the beginning of freshman year at Virginia State University. He was my date at our Senior High School Prom. I was blessed to be able to communicate with George regularly over the years up to his last hospital stay and the day before his surgery. Muc heal, his God-Sin,, was in touch with me to provide updates on his progress through his death. Thank you Muc heal. It was special to know him and he will forever remain in my heart. Friendship and love never dies; it just changes from one form to another. Rest in peace George, I will see you when we shall meet again. Helena French Newman

“ I am sadden to learn that you're mourning the loss of your dear George, it saddens our loving God even more. He views death as an enemy (1 Cor. 15:26) and He has promised that he will soon "swallow up death forever" and "wipe away the tears from all faces" (Isaiah 25:8). Please accept my condolences at this most distressing time.
