

George Francis Brown

June 18, 1955 - November 7, 2019

George Francis Brown Jr, son of George F. Brown Sr. and Delores E. Brown, was born on June 18, 1955 in Baltimore, MD. George departed for paradise on November 7, 2019. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System, where he met so many friends. Growing up, many knew George as GEO, Unc or Georgie Porgie. Throughout his life, George worked many jobs including bodyguard to his twin sisters, caregiver to his parents, partner in crime to Sanfu, and a best friend to many. His last employment was at the Haven/Arlington West Nursing Home in NW Baltimore. There, he went above and beyond to care for patients and staff. It was here where Geo expressed his heart of gold-being kind and good to others. In 2003, George accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior. George enjoyed fishing with his nephews, Derrick and Yarnell Majette. He caught everything from spots to rockfish. He also loved riding his bike throughout the various NW neighborhoods, stopping along the way to catch up with neighbors and friends. He always looked forward to the weekends to go to the flea markets and Goodwill with Sanfu and Daddy. George never missed a day of posting on Facebook, as many of you can attest. He loved sending chain messages to his friends and family. Anyone can have a friend, but George was the one who walks in the storm to find you. He is all most of us would ever need. It's that good heart and spirit that we will miss. George would help everyone that needed something done, from cutting grass and lawn service, to painting, to helping others move. GEO/Georgie Porgie, as he was so well known, had a big personality and you were always guaranteed to get a good laugh when you were in his presence. This past year GEO lived his best life. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. George was a true friend and devoted family man. George is being greeted in paradise by his sons, Carlos A. Brown, Darrell Brown, and Terrell Brown. He leaves to celebrate and cherish his memory: Parents, George F. and Delores E.
