

George Daryn Brown, Jr.

February 4, 1947 - June 2, 2015

George Daryn Brown, Jr., having witnessed and experience God's "Amazing Grace" stepped over into eternal rest on Monday, June 2, 2015. He was born on February 4, 1947 in Fort Myers, Florida.

George received his formal education in the Fort Myers Public School System. After graduation, he joined the United States Air Force. Upon receiving an honorable medical discharge from the military, George became an employee of Amtrak for many years. He lived in Charlottesville, Virginia for a while; then moved to Richmond, Virginia where he worked at the Richmond Behavior Health Authority.

George joined the Antioch Baptist Church Family in July 2006. He became a very active member of Antioch, where he participated in the Floral Ministry, Men's Ministry, the Elders of Grace Ministry and the Male Chorus where he captivated all who heard his deep bass voice in song-his favorite being "Amazing Grace".

On October 24, 2009, George took his lovely bride, Rev. Jacqueline O. Alexander. As a sports fan, anyone who knew George, knew he was an avid fan of the NFL Washington Redskins.

George was preceded in death by his parents, George D. Brown, Sr. and Lottie G. Brown. He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife, Jacqueline Alexander Brown; son Courtney A. Woodfolk; three grandchildren; devoted cousin, Annie L. Smith; mother-in-law, Nannie B. Johnson; two godmothers, Dorothy Ellis and Maelene Gibbs; a host of other relatives and friends and his best canine friend-Brownie Brown.

"Weeping may endure for the night, but joy comes in the morning."

Psalm 30:5

“ Sending comfort to the family...OMG, I saw Tex in Charlottesville Sunday May 24th, we talked about haven't seen each other in a long time. It;s so true, you don't know the day or time, so we must do right while we are here. I knew Tex was a good person, always lending a hand when needed. When we all get to Heaven what a day of rejoicing it will be; the baritone Angel has arrived. Tex your Charlottesville families will miss seeing you at the summer function or just stopping by to say hello. God Bless you Tex.

“ George was a beloved RBHA co-worker who will be tremendously missed. His beautiful smile, upbeat attitude and joyous spirit were infectious. He could turn a bad day good with his witty humor. We were football rivals but shared a love for the game. I know He knew, loved and served our Lord and so I am sure he is resting in perfect peace. gods blessings and comfort to his family.
