

George Bunch

December 6, 1961 - December 20, 2016

George was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, concluding his learnings at Patterson Senior High School. He was spiritually cultivated and baptized at Eastside Baptist Church under the leadership and tutelage of the late Reverend Collins C. Alexander.

George was renowned for his nature in assisting anyone in their time of need. His expertise was home and auto repair couple with a courageous spirit to tackle the most difficult task. He was gifted and exceptionally talented in working with his hands. George adored his nieces and nephews and established loving relationships with many children and nurtured them as if they were his own. George always carried a smile and possessed a warm spirit that would light up a room. George was the "The Life of the Party" and will be remembered for his fun-loving essence.

He leaves to mourn: two brothers, Delton Bunch (Charlotte) and Bruce Bunch (Leti); one sister, Kimberly Bunch; nephews Dante Bunch and Darius Bunch; nieces, Sylvia Bunch, Brittany Bunch, Kaylah Walker and Courtney Bunch; Great-nephew, D'airy Bunch; great-niece, Storee Bunch; three god-children, Kaylah, Norris Goodman and Tanayaia Holley his former wife and friend, Valerie Smith; and a host of aunts, uncle, cousins and friends. He also leaves a dear friend Lisa Holley and his "Special Uncle" Edward Sessoms who ensured George was taken care of at the request of George's father.
