

George Colbert

December 1, 1948 - January 9, 2010

GERORGE COLBERT, son of Robert Lloyd Colbert Sr. and the late Ethel Thomas, was born on December 1, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. He went home on January 9, 2010 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. At the age of sixteen he became employed by Baltimore City Public Works Department where he stayed for about forty years. He retired from the Baltimore City Public Works Department as a Supervisor II after his illness. "G-Man," as everyone knew him best, would curse you out and turn around and buy you a drink afterwards. He would always make you laugh. He was a wonderful father and friend. He will truly be missed by every life he touched. He leaves to mourn: his ex-wife, Rose Early; four children, Kelvin Miller, Chandra Graham, Ettare Colbert and the late Lawanda Cobb; three stepchildren, Ray Early, Lisa Conigland and the late Jay Early; six grandchildren, Raenell, Anthony, Raechell, Sade, Chanteirra and Kevin Jr.; five great-grandchildren, Kanaya, Eric, Anasia, Anijae and Myonna; two sisters, Ethel Colbert and Barbara Lee; three brothers, Robert Lloyd Colbert Jr., Charles Thomas and Gregory Thomas; brother-in-law, Robert Lee; sister-in-law, Carole Colbert; two sons-in-law, Samuel Graham and Timothy Cobb; a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends including a devoted friend, "Sporty."

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon, all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28, 29) As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all long for the time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev21:4). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
