

George S. Davis

March 28, 1934 - September 3, 2015

George S. Davis, the son of the late Bertha and Nathan White was born on March 28, 1934 in Baltimore, Maryland. The fifth oldest of nine children.

He received his formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon completion of high school, he became employed by the Bethlehem Steel Corporation. There he remained a dedicated worker for thirty-eight years, retiring in 1993.

At an early age George accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and was baptized at First Apostolic Faith Church under the leadership of the late Bishop Winfield Showell.

George possessed a warm, outgoing, friendly spirit and love for family and friends. His entertaining nature evidenced his care and concerns for others. His ability to provide support, advice and directions was the foundation for the nurturing of his children, as well as his family or anyone touched by his generosity.

George and his wife traveled extensively in the United States, as well as abroad. In his spare time, he enjoyed deep-sea fishing, gardening, cooking and maintenance jobs around the house. He also was an avid Baltimore Oriole and Ravens fan.

George leaves to cherish his memory: a loving and devoted wife, Sandra Davis; six children, George Davis, Jr., Christine Williams, Rosalind Davis, Talaya Baker, Monica and Leslie; Four sisters, LaThonia Davis, Mary Alice Hewlett, Rose Murray and Patricia White Johnson; two brothers-in-law, Michael Waller and Clarence Shearin; one sister-in-law, Phyllis Freeman; one son-in-law, Donald Baker; ten grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends; special brothers, Jimmy Terrell and Earl Samuel.
