

George R. Douglas

May 18, 1937 - October 7, 2010

GEORGE "BOBBY" DOUGLAS departed this life the early morning of October 7, 2010. He was the son of the late Annie Brown Charles Mays. George "Bobby" Douglas was born on May 18, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. George Douglas was joined in holy matrimony with Anna "Cissie" Douglas in 1991.

Bobby as he was affectionately known to family and friends, worked at Sparrows Point for thirteen years and Sealtest Dairy for six years. He became self-employed along with his mother and opened Bobby's Place. After closing of the tavern he became a cab driver and owner. He retired in 2000.

Bobby was a very caring and loving person. He adored his children Torn, Lanae and Davin. He cherished his two grandchildren, Shanae and Melissa, whom he and Cissie raised from birth.

He has four great-grandchildren, Davonna, Tanijah, Taniyah and Tavien who filled his life with joy and of course kept him busy.

He leaves to mourn and cherish: his wife, Cissie children, Lanae and Davin; grandchildren, Shanae and Melissa; great-grandchildren, Davonna, Tanijah, Taniyah and Tavien; sisters, Cora Hampton and Bernice Douglas; four special cousins, Charles, Eugene, Anthony and Bernard; family friends, LaVonne and Gary Shaw and Raymond Bogier; and a host of other relatives and friends.
