

George Washington Edmondson

October 20, 1927 - June 25, 2018

George Washington Edmondson was born on October 20, 1927 to the late Harry and Melissa Edmondson in Halifax, Virginia. George was the 3rd born of four boys, Harry, Edward and Wilson who all preceded him in death. George transitioned on to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on June 25, 2018 after living a lengthy life of 90 years.

George was affectionately known as “Granddad” or “Pop Pop”.

George was educated in the Virginia Public School System. After finishing school, the family moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where he began to live his adult life.

George met and married the love of his life, Viola Carter, in the late 40’s. From this union 3 children were born, Purnell, Patricia and Earl. Unfortunately, George’s 2 sons, Purnell and Earl, preceded him in death.

George started working at Bethlehem Steel when he first came to Baltimore. He later began to work at Herb’s Body and Fender Shop, there he was a body and fender mechanic. George was very talented, he could take a car apart and put it back together with no problem. He loved working on cars and playing poker and pinochle. George also loved traveling with family and friends and spending time at different beaches with his children. One of his favorite things was walking, “granddad could walk miles in one day.” He would walk as far as Howard County (Enchanted Forest Shopping Center) from North and McKean Avenues. He loved walking in the neighborhood and cleaning the streets with his cane, he would scoop trash up in a bag that he would be carrying around. He also loved calling everyone “Baby” and saying “Hon”. One of granddad’s other famous sayings was “What you talking about”.

George leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and devoted daughter, Patricia Edmondson; 7 grandchildren, Michael Edmondson, Katiza Brown, Lachelle Redd (Shane), Roniece Durham-Steward (William), Shawnta Gibson, Raheem Edmondson and Amber Carter; 24 great grandchildren, 10 great great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
