

George Edward Wilkes

July 20, 1946 - October 29, 2007

George Edward Wilkes, son of the late Milford David and Ida Mae Wilkes, born July 20, 1946, in Greenville, North Carolina, departed this life October 29, 2007. He attended Epps High School in Greenville. George had a special love for music, the Bible, and gospel music. For nineteen years, he worked at B. Green and Company in Baltimore, Maryland as a warehouseman. He had a passion for all sports and played sports with all the neighborhood kids. He was a lovable person who seemed to spread a ray of sunshine wherever he went, and he was the life of every party. He was a loving father and a dedicated husband, who put family first in any endeavor. On July 18, 1970, he married Valerie Johnson, and out of this union came one son, Juan Keith Wilkes. George leaves to cherish his loving memory: his wife, Valerie Wilkes; his son, Juan Keith Wilkes; three brothers, James, Alton, and David "Norma Ray" Wilkes; his mother-in-law and father-in-law, Louise and Charles Brown; three sisters, Willie Mae Matthews, Thelma McQueen, and Irma Lee Goldsberry; four brothers-in-laws; Nathan Cromwell, Dwain and Andre Johnson and Jesse Grant; seven sister-in-laws, Selma Scott, Bonita and Eunice Johnson, Yvette Webb, Alice Faye, Linda Wilkes and Cassandra Grant; one aunt, Anna Jordan of Rocky Mount, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Oh how I loved my Uncle George and how I know he loved me. I will never forget my uncle. On graduation day, June 4, 1984, I will never forget how he yelled out, "Wanda Baby" as I walked across the stage to receive my high school diploma. He took me roller skating and I used to spend the night all the time with my Uncle George and Aunt Valerie. Uncle George kept a smile on my face and will forever keep a smile in my heart. Now my aunt has passed also. Please show love and give love, here today and gone tomorrow. You will be missed Uncle George. Love you always. To Juan and the entire family, stay strong and stay blessed. Wanda, Willie-Mae, Chris and Randy##imported-begin##Wanda Lunsford-Bentley##imported-end##
