

George Stephen Fleming, Jr.

June 29, 1968 - September 30, 2013

Remembering:

George Stephen Fleming, Jr., was the firstborn of George Stephen Fleming, Sr. and Blanche Paulette Fleming on June 29, 1968 in Richmond Virginia. He peacefully departed this life on September 30, 2013 in Chesterfield, Virginia.

At an early age, Stephen accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and Savior. He became a member of St. Mark Baptist Church (Maidens Virginia ) and later moved his membership to the Jerusalem Baptist Church (Manakin-Sabot, Virginia). He received his diploma from Henrico High School in 1986 and began working at DuPont at 18 years of age with 23 years of service. He served various jobs including production operator in machinery, management roles, EMT, and first responder of the fire department. He successfully completed the Spruance Mechanical Equipment Technician(MET) Training Program and was awarded to him on October 1, 2013.

He married Angela K. Barnes and from this union there were three children: Kayla, Stephanie and Stephen Austin Fleming. It would not be uncommon to find Steve fishing, taking a joy ride in his truck, watching drag racing, expressing his love for animals, proudly showing pictures of his family and most importantly spending time with his children.

He leaves behind a family that he loved so dearly. To cherish his loving memory are six daughters and two sons: Kayla, Stephanie, Stephen Austin, Shanya, and Lena Fleming, Sharel Jones and Joshua Bishop. The devoted mothers of his children: Angela Fleming, Christy Fleming and Leona Richardson, one brother : Kevin (Stephanie) Fleming and two brothers-in-law: Steve and Mike (Mary Lyne) Barnes, two sisters-in-law: Donna (Larry) Barnes and Delores (Billy) Garnett. He also leaves to cherish in his loving memory two nieces: Madison and Jordyn Fleming, mother-in-law, Jean McKenny (Lou) and Charles Barnes (deceased), one loving friend, Sonya Pond along with a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I know he is up in Heaven with his brown IROC Z, listening to "Moma's going to knock you out" Smiling down at us and loving life!!!! We will see his friendly face again and I will be forever grateful when he got Billy hired on at DuPont those 25 yrs ago!!!! They truly were Miami Vice (with their collars up & loud music of course)!!!! Until we meet again and even though he was s "lady's man" he truly loved his one true love Angie and his kids!!!!

“ Dear Fleming Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to all mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline: "When Death Is Swallowed Up Forever..." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states, "And he (God) Will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitled "What Hope For Dead Loved Ones"? I am not selling anything or conducting any business of any sort, not now or ever. I am just showing Neighborly love like what (Mark 12:31) mentions. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences and my the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina*

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ To Paulette, Stephen Sr, Kevin, and family - My heart is broken too. God is with you at this time, lean on him. We do not understand why God took him now but what we do know is that God is mighty and loving and we must continue to give him glory. God will give you peace and will help you through this season of sorrow. I will pray for your strength, especially the children.

*Dear Paulette and Steve Sr and the rest of our family.
God's grace is situated right next to His love. In our difficult times it is good to remember that God still loves us and has grace to see us through the difficulties. Place your hand in His and allow Him to carry you through. God is with you most importantly and we grieve with you and love you too.
In the precious love of Jesus.

“ I hadn't known Steve for a long time but in the short time I did know him he touched my heart and my soul in a way that no one ever has. He was an amazing man who loved his children and put them first above all else. He quickly became my best friend, we shared so much about our lives with each other and had a lot more to share. It ended way to soon, I was looking forward to having so much more time with him. It's so hard to get up in the morning and turn on my phone knowing I'm not going to have my usual good morning text from him, he's not going to call me on his lunch break ever again. I have cried so many tears and my heart is broken not only for my loss but for his family, his beautiful children, parents and brother. May God bless you all and be with you in this difficult time. Steve will always have a special place in my heart. I'm going to miss him more than word can ever explain.
