

George Floyd

August 5, 1951 - November 29, 2018

George Floyd was born on June 5, 1951 to Mr. and Mrs. Richard and Hettie Floyd, both raised in Evergreen, Alabama (Conecuh County) where they were farm workers. George's parents departed this life at early ages and on November 29, 2018 at 4:25pm, the Lord saw fit to call him from the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland after dealing with a short illness. Early on in his life, George decided to take on a career path in Home Improvement and Real Estate. His interest landed him a job working for HUD Real Estate Company as a maintenance worker, it was through this job experience that he was eventually given the opportunity to travel. During this time, Mr. Floyd had decided to journey from Alabama through parts of Washington D.C. and here to Baltimore City, where he met Gay Pierce (Momma-Gay). It was upon their meeting that George was accepted into her family as a loving family member and adopted the name Holmes. In his spare time, George spent time helping in his local neighborhood by cleaning trash out of the gutters, shoveling snow in the winter, and carrying the grocery bags of his local neighbors from the market to their houses. George also loved to gather around friends and those he called his family to dance, joke, and laugh. George was the oldest of 4 siblings (3 boys and 1 girl) in which all have deceased before his departure. Seeing that Mr. Floyd didn't have any biological children, he still leaves behind cherished memories with his Baltimore family of 16 years: Gay Pierce (Momma-Gay); her children, Ronald Scott, Jr. (deceased), Antonio and Chenika (Mrs. Tammy) Goines, Michael and Evita (Mrs. Lavita) Venable, Thomas Venable, Edith Venable, and Lisa Venable. Her grandchildren: Shyheem Miller, Shynika Smith, Ronald Scott III, Melia Venable, Corey Jones, Thomas J. Venable, Andrew Goines, Michael Venable Jr., Navie Venable, Makayla Venable and her great grand daughter, Journee Miller and a host of friends.
