“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible tells us at First Corinthians 15:26 that death really is our enemy and Almighty God will destroy death in his due time. There is much hope for our loved ones who have already died. Acts 24:15 declares-"...there is going to be a resurrection..." That will take place in a new world in which no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain will take place. (Revelation 21:3-5) May you receive much solace, support and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I offer my heartfelt condolences to you for your loss. The hope we have of seeing our loved ones again is through the promised resurrection recorded at Acts 24:15, and John 5:28,29. Also Rev.21:4 tells us that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. We all long to see a world without sickness and death, and that is God's promise to us; a promise we can trust in from Jehovah, who never fails to fulfill his word. As Isaiah 55:11 tells us, "My word will not return to me without results, but it will certainly do that in which I have delighted; and it will have certain success in that for which I have sent it." May these wonderful promises from God give you much comfort in the days ahead, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
