

George M. Goodman

March 25, 1970 - August 23, 2016

George M. Goodman, son of Cynthia Hammond and George M. Goodman Sr., was born on March 25, 1970 in Baltimore, Maryland. George departed this life after a lengthy illness on August 23, 2016.

George was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He held various jobs throughout his adult life. His most recent position was a Longshoreman at the Port of Baltimore.

No matter what George was going through, he always found comfort in reading his bible as well as playing his keyboard/piano. He was an independent man who enjoyed life and was always on the go. George had a heart of GOLD with a laugh and a smile to light up the room. Most of all, he carried a special friendship with his children.

George leaves to celebrate and cherish his memory: a loving mother, Cynthia Hammond; supportive father, George M. Goodman Sr.; two grandmothers, Louise Teal and Doris Bennett; six loving children, Ciera Goodman, Travis Booth, Travis Acree, Myisha Goodman, Zyshawn Quarles and Ze'ashiah Goodman; four grandchildren, Meonnia, Travis Jr., Michael and Aubree; two brothers, Damon Hazelton and Timothy White; sister, Nefertiti Goodman; close friends, Rodney, Joe Reggie and Chino; two devoted friends, Chalonda Rogers and De' Shawn Quarles; dedicated friend, Mr. Ed; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*DON'T SAY THAT I GAVE UP, JUST SAY THAT I GAVE IN DON'T SAY THAT I LOST THE BATTLE, FOR IT WAS GOD'S WAR
TO LOOSE OR WIN, GOD SAW THE ROAD GETTING ROUGH, MY SPIRIT BEGAN TO FADE, HE GENTLY CLOSED MY EYES, IAM NOW AT PEACE WITH HIM.*

*ALWAYS LOVED, AND ALWAYS MISSED,

“ These lyrics have given many a measure of comfort in their grief. I hope knowing that we have the hope of seeing our loved ones we have lost in death will give the family comfort as well. "Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, then disappears tomorrow. All that we are can quickly fade away, replaced with tears and sorrow. If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made: He will call; the dead will answer. They shall live at his command. For he will have a longing for the work of his own hand. So have faith, and do not wonder, for our God can make us stand. And we shall live forever, as the work of his own hand." (Job 14:13-15)
Sing To Jehovah, song #111.

“ George and my brother Robert McGee use to be thick as thieves. Going to Patterson high together, they played a lot of sports together. They were a lot like brothers. George was a good guy and that is the truth. I am going to really miss him. Until they meet up again. U were  by just about every person he came across.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
