“ I am sorry to learn of the death of George. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says that men are reserved to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not so before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. At such sad times in our lives, the scriptures can give much comfort, and also infuse hope in our hearts for a better and happy future without pain or death. Rev 21:3,4 is one such comforting scripture for it says, "Look! "The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. "And God himself will be with them. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." I hope this and other scriptures give your family the same comfort that they have given mine at such times, and give you the strength to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for your loss. First Corinthians 15:26 loving tells us that our enemy death will one day be destroyed. Acts 24:15 declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think about these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. I know your loss must be very painful. During this difficult time, the Bible can be very helpful. Almighty God has a hope for your dear loved one and your family. John 5:28,29 promises, "...all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..."
