

George Calvin Gordon Sr.

December 23, 1941 - April 26, 2017

George Calvin Gordon passed away on Wednesday, April 26th. He was born in Pamplico South Carolina, eventually arriving in Richmond Virginia where he worked and retired from Stocks Billing Supply Co. He is survived by his wife, Inell, his son George, Jr. (Joyce), Sisters Albertha Weaver (Alvin), Mildred Brayboy (Ronnie) and Lottie Bailey. Brothers-in-Law Paul Gilliam (who was raised as a son), James Gilliam and Clarence Gilliam. Four grandchildren, four great grandchildren and a host of family and friends. George enjoyed NASCAR and sightseeing for relaxation. We will miss him very much.

John 5:28, 29

Do not marvel because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

“ Losing a love one in death is not what God wanted for mankind. One day death will be done away with. The scripture that comforts me the most is Isaiah 26:19, "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life". I hope these words will comfort your family as well.

“ With my deepest condolences to the family of George Gordon. May the Almighty, the God of tender mercies and of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials (2Corinthians1:3,4), comfort you and your family in this time of need.

“ I offer my condolences for the loss of Mr. Gordon. Continue to lean on family and friends for comfort and support. God gives us comfort and hope at Isaiah 41:10 when we mourn on occasions like this. May you find the strength to endure the days ahead.
