“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 where we are promised that those who have fallen asleep in death have the hope of receiving a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.###imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan###imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the death of Mr Butler. Losing a loved one is truly a most heartbreaking event that any family has to undergo, and God never desired for us to experience such grief. That is why he promises that one day soon, this enemy, death, which causes us so much pain will be done away with forever, 1st Cor 15:26. Imagine a world without sickness, violence, or death. This is not merely wishful thinking, because all that Jehovah promises will come true. His word always came true in the past, and we know that because he is a God of faithfulness; all of his future promises will come true as well. Isaiah 55:11 confirms this, because it says, "My word will not return to me without results, but it will certainly do that in which I have delighted, and it will have certain success in that for which I have sent it." One of those promises from God is life in a peaceful new world for all obedient people, and all for all of the dead who will be raised back to life in that peaceful world. 2nd Peter 3:13 says this, "But there are new heavens and a new earth in which we are awaiting, and in these righteousness is to dwell." Also Psalm 37:29 says, "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Acts 24:15 promises that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." May you be comforted by the resurrection hope, and may your precious memories of George help you to cope in the days to come.##imported-begin##R
