“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. In your quiet moments and months after the funeral, you can still be comforted by the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promised at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Yes, we can be grateful for the ransom sacrifice of Christ Jesus that made this blessing a reality---the opportunity to embrace your dead loves again.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##

“ May you all be comforted by the God of all comfort during your time of sorrow. Rest assured that Almighty God is aware of the pain you are going through, and he pruposes to put an end to all sickness and death in the very near future. This was never God's purpose for us to experience this pain and sorrow, and he promises to end all death very soon. 1st Cor 15,26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." The fact that God looks at death as our enemy is proof that he never desired this for us. We can just look at how things were in the beginning when he placed Adam and Eve in the beautiful Gaarden of Eden. On e day when we pray the Lord's prayer; "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven will come to pass, and we will be able to live in peaceful, secure conditions; no doubt the way it truly is in heaven. Then John 5:28,29 promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; to a ressurection of life." May those promises from Jehovah strengthen you, and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
