“ To The Family & Friends of Mr. George Bentley, I would like to convey my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". Please continue to draw close to the "God of all comfort" and he will give your the strength to endure. (2Cor1:3-4). Warmest Regards, C. Murphy###imported-begin##Chandra Murphy###imported-end##

“ Wanda, Jimmy and Casey We are praying for you all. Your father was a true inspiration to us all. He was the oldest Bentley Grandchild. He never missed being a faithful supporter of his family reunion Gregory and Bentley Family and Friends Reunion since we started in July 1986. He was even here with us in July 2008, he belived in family togetherness and working to keep the family together. A man with a great legacy and love for family and friends. He spreaded his kindness to us all. Stay close together and remember he will always be close in your hearts. Stay close to God and he will give you the strength you need to face each day. Love you always Cousin Maxine & Donald Smith and Family###imported-begin###Maxine Smith###imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere condolences for the loss of Mr Bentley. While noone knows exactly how you feel, I do understand how hard it is to lose a loved one in death. It's the hardest thing ever that any family must deal with. I would like to share a comforting thought with you from the bible. Rev 21:3,4 speaks of a time when there will be no more sorrow or pain. It says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more; neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. Then in verse 5 he adds this assurance. "Look! "I am making all things new." One day this world will be free of the enemy death(1st Cor 15:26), as well as all violence and poverty which makes people"s lives miserable. Soon we will live in a peaceful secure world, and even the dead will share in these wonderful blessings; because Jehovah God, through his son Christ Jesus, will see that the dead are ressurected back to life. Acts 24:15 lets us know that there is going to be a ressurection of the righteous as well as of the unrighteous." May you find much comfort from the holy scriptures, as well as from your precious memories of happier days.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end##
