

George J. Fitzgerald

December 31, 1943 - May 20, 2005

George James Fitzgerald, the first son of George and Doris Fitzgerald, was born on December 31, 1943. He departed this life on Friday, May 20, 2005 after a lengthy illness. He struggled down Long-suffering Lane, Persecution Boulevard and Trials and Tribulations Avenue. But that's alright because his final stop was at the Potter's house on Victory Street. George was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He was very fond of the horse and wagons, and used them to make a living during his younger years. Sometimes when he wasn't working, you would see George with his sweetheart, Mary Elizabeth "Liz" Mitchell (whom he married and preceded him in death), and the children riding up the street. George was a very pleasant person and had plenty of friends and associates. You would often see him in the Northeast Market laughing and talking. He will be missed by many. He leaves to cherish his memory: two sons, George and Michael; seven daughters, Beverly, Doris, Mattie, Elizabeth, Angie, Karen and Sharon; twenty-three grandchildren, six great-grandchildren; his father and mother, George "Preacher" and Doris; five brothers, Gary, Larry, Steve, Keith and Reggie; two sisters, Anita and Ponda; five sons-in-law, Chris Coffins, Michael Petit, Alan Durkes, Arthur Jeter and Marvin Tate; four sisters-in-law, Catherine Cole, Theresa and Barbara Mitchell and Rose Coates; three brothers-in-law, Ignatius, Wilbert and Francis Mitchell; seven aunts, an uncle and host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
