April 14, 1928 - May 22, 2008

Born to the late John and Carrie Jenkins, GEORGE JENKINS began his earthly life on April 14, 1928 in Forkland, Alabama. He began his heavenly life on May 22, 2008 after a lengthy illness. George Jenkins gave his soul to the Lord in 1945 when baptized in Forkland, Alabama at Friendship Baptist Church. He was educated in the Forkland, Alabama education system completing the 8th grade. In 1950, he married the love of his life Kathleen Jenkins. To begin his lengthy career at Sparrows Point, he, his wife and three children moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1952 at the tender age of twenty-four old. He worked at Sparrow Point until 1990 at age sixty-two when he retired. For well over fifty years, George Jenkins was a faithful member of Faith Baptist Church. As the president of the Men's Choir, he recruited the many men of Faith to join and as a result, the choir became stronger. George Jenkins loved and adored Faith Baptist Church. He wore many hats, serving as the Men's Choir president, janitor, father, grandfather and godfather. His favorite pastime was fishing. If you wanted to find him, most likely he'd be at Loch Raven sitting out on the water. Not only did he enjoy catching fish, he loved to eat fish as well, his favorite dish. Whenever there was a family function, George Jenkins always supplied the fish and people stood in line to feast on it. George Jenkins was preceded in death by: his wife, Kathleen Jenkins; sons, Ross C. Jenkins Sr. and George Jenkins; daughter, Katharine Jefferson; and brother, John Jenkins. “ Please accept my heartfelt condolences at this difficult time. One dat all sorrow will be past, because there will be no more people getting sick or dying. We all long for eternal life in peaceful conditions; something we have never known. That is why we pray the Lord's prayer; particularly the part that says: "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, just as it is in heaven. We can all imagine how peaceful heaven is, and when that prayer is answered then our earth will be peaceful just as it is in heaven. There is no dying in heaven, likewise there will be no dying on earth, and speaking about this 1st Cor 15,26 says: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. The dead will also come back to a peaceful life, because Psalm 37:11 says that the meek ones shall inherit the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." Also speaking about the dead living again Daniel 12,2 tells us; "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Please be comforted by Jehovah's promises, because he never fails to carry out his word. Isaiah 55:10,11##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
