

George Edward Jolley

June 23, 1963 - September 18, 2010

GEORGE E. JOLLY, son of the late Richard and Gertrude Goodwin was born on June 20th , 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland and departed from this life on September, 18th 2010.

George was educated in Baltimore City Public School (Belmont Elementary, Lemmel Junior High and he graduated from Walbrook Senior High. He received Christ in his life at an early age at New Jerusalem Holiness Church.

George held several different jobs and recently decided he wanted to become a chef he loved to cook and eat. He enrolled in the Baltimore Culinary Arts School in Downtown Baltimore. George loved to recite things his father Richard Goodwin, Sr. said to his brother, Richard and himself when they would be in trouble which would always make you laugh. George loved baseball and football he always talked about one or the other. George will always be remembered for his sense of humor and his great big smile.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory: Richard Goodwin, Jr., brother, Burma Goodwin, sister-in-law, Ladraia Lashay Wilson, and Melissa, daughters, Tymiya Mishaya Johnson, granddaughter, Susie Harris, aunt, Linnea Goodwin, niece, Tracey Goodwin, niece, Antonio Lyde, nephew, Darien Jackson, nephew-in-law, Kayla Rowe, great niece, Kamyra Anderson, great niece, Katlyn Jackson, great niece, The Chatman & Harper Family who adopted George as their own and a host of other relatives and friends.

Be not moved by a sudden thing such as this. It's only my flesh that you will miss Don't let your tears stand in the way, for this is a Beautiful and Glorious day. Remember the love that we once shared, miss me, but let me go. For it is a journey we all must take and each must go alone. It's all part of the Master's Plan, a step on the road to home. Miss Me But Let Me Go!
