

George Lane

August 16, 1965 - March 7, 2004

George Lane, best known as Bobo, was born August 16, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland to Sammie Lee Lane, Sr. and the late Mary Joy-Lane. He departed this life on Sunday, March 7, 2004 after a brief illness. Bobo and his twin sister Joyce, were the youngest of eleven children. He was baptized in Jesus' name at The United Church of Jesus Christ at an early age. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and worked various jobs until he received his Commercial Driver's license. Bobo loved sports and spent many hours at the library. He was very knowledgeable of many subjects especially politics and was a very good conversationalist. He loved his family and was very protective of his sisters. He was also very meticulous about his appearance and home. He leaves to cherish his wonderful sense of humor and a beautiful smile: his son, Joshua Lane; his father, Sammie Lane Sr.; five brothers, Charles, Robert, Isaac, Sammie Jr. and Larry Lane; five sisters, Ruth Collins, Rebecca Cervantes, Darlene Anoruo, Thelma Lane, and his twin, Joyce McDowell; four brothers-in-law, Donald Collins, Lee McDowell, Richard Cervantes and Joseph Anoruo; four sisters-in-law, Barbara, Diane, Eva and Denise Lane; nineteen nieces and nephews, three great-nephews, a great-niece, three aunts; a close friend, Delores and many other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Family and Friends, I am very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. I hope that you find comfort in the following scriptures, as I have in my time of need: -John 5:28,29 - "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (These are Jesus' words on the hope of the resurrection) -Revelation 20:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor pain be any-more. The former things have passed away. (Hope for the future)##imported-begin##Samone Smith##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
