“ To The Family and Friends of George Garnett Lewis,

I'm very sorry to hear about your loss. From the obituary and comments below, I see that he was loved by many as a humble and respectful young person. I too know the pain of losing someone a loved one. What gives me and many others comfort is the hope found in God's Word, the Bible. In Matthew 5:28, it says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." The Bible gives us hope that we will see our dead loved ones again.

“ A TRIBUTE TO MY MAN GEORGE

I remember me and you growing up on Somerset Street, the funny nickname you had for my moms, Ms. Fleet:O). You were just here. I'm going to miss all the fun times we had laughing and talking about the Martin show. The same way we kicked it at home, we kicked it here, we never missed a beat, it was just like old times. When my moms told me what happened to you, I couldn't believe it, I can't get my brain to accept the fact you're not here, it's so unreal. I'm going to remember the good times Main Man, Until We Meet Again. Rest In Peace George.

“ To The Family Of George Garnett Lewis

My heart was broken to hear about what happened to George. He and my son Breon grew up together on Somerset Street. I watched George grow up through the years and he was a respectful young man, Ms. Jackie taught him well. I remember when I first met George in my backyard, he was about 7. (I put him out because he came in to fight my son :O) George was a good person and I only have fond memories of a very respectful young man. My condolences to his family. May God continue to keep you in his care during this difficult time.

“ I remember George when I first moved to Eager Street. He was so sweet and friendly. He and my daughter went to middle school together, he looked out for her. Where ever he saw me he would always be polite no matter what he was doing. He will truly be missed.
